

Natures Superheroes

We've found some animals with some special traits!
But the descriptions have been muddled up, can you help us correct them?

This creature can find its prey
from 2km away and travel over 240mph to get to it!

This creature is capable of shooting insects off low-level branches and leaves!

This creature can hear incredibly high-pitched sounds!

This creature can detect the temperature of other animals.

This creature can change the colour of its skin to match the surroundings it is in.
